The Colleges of Los Angeles

Current students, prospective students and anyone just curious about our colleges are invited to enjoy free tours, free food, music, fun activities, giveaways and much more. College officials, application and enrollment experts, financial aid counselors, faculty and other employees will be at each of the colleges to help people design the right education schedules for them and enroll. Chancellor Francisco C. Rodriguez, Ph.D., and other District representatives plan to visit several of the colleges.

Each of the colleges are also partnering with a variety of healthcare providers as well as the Los Angeles County Department of Public Health (LACDPH) to provide free COVID-19 vaccination clinics to anyone during the on-campus events. Providers include Kaiser Permanente, City of Los Angeles Fire Department, Kedren Health, Fulgent, Via Care and Wesley. All LACCD students who get vaccinated at the Open House events are eligible to receive up to $150 as a vaccination incentive. (An update on the incentive program is included in this report further below.)

A robust schedule of advertising and outreach to promote the events include social media and digital advertising, radio and print ads in English and Spanish, newsletters, news releases, media interviews, website postings, mailers and email blasts. Other examples include:

II. District Status on COVID-19 Public Health Emergency & Recovery

The District and the Colleges continue to respond to a variety of issues related to the COVID-19 pandemic, now in its 18th month since the public health emergency was declared in March 2020. Both the District's Emergency Operations Center (EOC) and the colleges' Incident Command Centers remain active, but on reduced weekly meeting schedules. LACDPH Health Orders remain in effect and were most recently revised as of July 30, 2021. The District's next telebriefing with county health officials is scheduled for Friday, August 6.

The District has not been immune to the current surge of the COVID-19 Delta variant that has afflicted California and the rest of the nation. Increase incidents of positive cases and exposures have been recorded all the colleges and District facilities. Sadly, an employee at Los Angeles Trade-Technical College has become the fourth person affiliated with the LACCD community to have died as a result of the disease. The District's Emergency Operations Center (EOC) has recorded and tracked more than 600 positives since the outbreak began.

The District EOC continues to work with the LACDPH on reporting and contact tracing for all reported cases and exposures as well as notifications by the District and the colleges to all impacted employees and union leadership.

Online self-screening for employee and students, plus mandatory employee safety training continues. New and renewed signage is being deployed at all colleges and district facilities prior to the Fall 2021 Semester.

The training is done online (Start the COVID-19 Safety Training) and takes about 60 minutes to complete.

Robust room and building cleanings, including sanitizing as needed, plus HVAC cleaning, continues per an aggressive schedule developed by the District's Facilities, Planning and Development Department.

Another large order of N95 respiratory masks has been made and approximately 50,000 masks per college are expected to be delivered within the next two weeks.

Interim Assessment

The EOC and the ICCs, meanwhile, also continue to work on an Interim Assessment and Preliminary Improvement Plan to document the past 18 months of the emergency. Most of the colleges have now participated in "Hot Washes" to debrief on the work accomplished thus far and to provide input on lessons learned and recommendations for improvements.

The report is expected to be completed by the end of September. Due to the uncertainty of the pandemic, the Delta variant surge, increase cases and other factors, there is no specific timeline for when the pandemic emergency might end and, in turn, when the EOC and the ICCs can formally demobilize.

Vaccination Clinics

As noted above, the nine colleges continue to host a variety of free COVID-19 vaccination clinics in July and into August, including the August 7 Open House events. The colleges have rallied to answer the call by local and state health officials to have clinics available to the surrounding communities they serve throughout Los Angeles County.

East Los Angeles College also continues to be an important testing site that has been open to the public for about a year.

To date, more than 550 LACCD students have been vaccinated during the past six weeks and have taken advantage of the special incentive offer for students thanks to the partnership between the Foundation for the Los Angeles Community Colleges and Kaiser Permanente. Many of the colleges are providing students with additional incentives to get vaccinated such as food debit cards and credits to the college bookstores. Under the districtwide incentive program, students can receive $75 for getting themselves vaccinated and get an additional $75, for a total of $150, if they bring a friend or family member to get vaccinated, while funding lasts.

The colleges' vaccination clinics continue to receive significant, positive news media coverage, which has helped raise awareness by, and participation in, the incentive program for LACCD students.

DN COVID variant continues relentless spread in LA...

Ethel Guzman administers a COVID-19 vaccine during a walk-up vaccination clinic held by the Los Angeles Mission College and Kaiser Permanente. The clinic was held as part of the college's "Eagle Enrollment Fair" in preparation for the fall 2021 semester. Students who enroll at LAMC while at the event will receive assistance to apply for a $300 emergency grant and a free pass to Six Flags Magic Mountain if they received their COVID-19 vaccination on site. Anyone age 12 or older is eligible to be vaccinated and the clinics at the colleges are open to all, with no appointment needed.

III. Updates on LACCD Enrollment & Marketing

A. Fall Enrollment Comparison

1. Comparing Fall 2021 (7/29/21) to Fall 2020 (7/30/20) as of Day -32 of the semester, for the District as a whole:

- Headcount is at 87%,
- Duplicated Enrollment is at 84%,
- Credit Section Count is at 105%, and
- Enrollment per Section is at 80%

2. As of Day -35 (7/26/21 vs 7/27/20), comparing Fall 2021 to Fall 2020, significant enrollment changes were:

- 17% decline in students in the 20-24 age group
- 16% decline in female students
- 18% decline in Asian students

3. Fall 2021 Instruction Modalities and Fill Rates

- Districtwide, 25% of Fall 2021 classes are being offered in the in-person modality
- Remote and hybrid classes are filling at a higher rate than in-person classes and the fill rate of in-person classes is currently 25% lower than that of remote classes

B. Fall 2021 Comparative Enrollment

Local area community colleges are experiencing enrollment declines. Results of an informal survey of enrollment at neighboring community colleges done the week of July 26th are:

College	% Change Fall 2020 to Fall 2021 (relative day)
	Headcount	FTES
Santa Monica	NA	-10.6%
El Camino	NA	-12.4%
Glendale	NA	-16.0%
Pasadena	-3.5%	NA
Saddleback (South Orange County CCD)	-12.4%	-12.1%
Irvine Valley (South Orange County CCD)	-16.7%	-15.6%
Cypress (North Orange County CCD)	-9.1%	NA
Compton	-2.0%	-15.0%

C. 2020-2021 FTES and Enrollment Metrics

- The District Attendance Accounting Office reported 86,346 FTES in its 2020-21 Annual FTES (320) report to the State Chancellor's Office. This represented a 12.7% decline from 2019-20.
- Fall 2020 average class size (29.3), declined by 8.7% compared to Fall 2019 (32.1).

D. Fall 2021 Enrollment Campaign

- Significant outreach campaign for the in-person Open House and Fall Registration Fairs (We're back! We're Open! We're ready for You!) was put together quickly to augment the Fall Enrollment campaign that runs through mid-September.
- Fall Enrollment Campaign includes districtwide outreach through social media focused on students who have not yet enrolled for the Fall 2021 semester. Specific audiences with emails and social media includes: applied, but not enrolled; previously enrolled students but not currently enrolled; and financial aid applicants who have not yet enrolled. Total core target audience is more than 300,000 students. Examples of some of the college-branded social media advertising seen by these audiences include:

IV. Foundation for the Los Angeles Community Colleges

Michael Fuller, Director of Institutional Advancement, reported that nearly 100 students per week have applied for the Kaiser Permanente “Max the Vax Campaign” incentive since the effort was first announced in mid-June.

The Foundation, in partnership with a generous grant from Kaiser Permanente, is supporting the districtwide vaccine efforts with the incentive campaign. Students are eligible for up to $150 and more than 550 students who have been vaccinated have now applied for the special incentive as of August 1. Additional incentive applications continue to be received daily.

DACA Workshops

The Foundation, in partnership with Los Angeles Trade-Technical College (LATTC), provided $100 to students who participate in DACA information workshops. As a result of this partnership, the last workshop had 50 participants; the most attendance experienced to date.

Foundation is also partnering with Los Angeles Mayor Eric Garcetti and the Mayor’s Fund for Los Angeles to assist undocumented students with paying the $495 DACA application renewal fee. Students are connected to legal providers, who provide a deeper level of information and assistance to students experiencing immigration issues.
