October 19, 2020

Greetings, LACCD Colleagues,

The LACCD Dream Resource Centers (DRC) are excited to invite you to the First LACCD Annual Summit "Supporting Undocumented Students: A Call to Action!" taking place this week of Oct 19-23. This summit complements the efforts of the California Community College Undocumented Student Week of Action, which aim to advocate and provide support and resources for the undocumented student population.

Please join our LACCD DRC colleagues for exciting webinars and virtual panels for students/staff/faculty/counselors and administrators for colleges statewide and for our District:

There are a few flyers attached to this email highlighting the LACCD Summit webinars/panels:

For Staff and Faculty Professional Development:

Please see the flyer for “LACCD Employees: Intentional practices for Undocumented Students” session on Wednesday, Oct 21 from 1-2 pm. This session will review data on undocumented students throughout the district and recent LACCD led ETS report. In addition, employees will have an opportunity to engage in conversation about best practices to support undocumented students in and outside of the classroom. Please be sure to check out the additional professional development webinars offered statewide through the link provided above.

For Students:

Please see the flyer that highlights the workshops geared to students- these encompass topics such as: CA Dream Act workshops/labs, Testimonio/Sharing your Narrative workshop, Mental Health workshop, and CSUN’s Dream Resource Information
Session. Please be sure to encourage students to check out the additional student webinars offered statewide through the link provided above.

For All Staff, Faculty, Students, Administrators:

The other flyer highlights the Friday, Oct 23 Special Panel Discussion on Supporting Undocumented Students in California. This panel includes undocu-champions like: CCC Chancellor Eloy Ortiz-Oakley, LACCD Trustee Buelna, Assemblywoman Wendy Carrillo and other panelists. Please be sure to register to attend!

We also invite you to Click here to donate! to the Undocumented Student Success Fund for the LACCD. Your contributions provide direct student financial support.

Lastly, show your support for undocumented students proudly next week by changing your zoom background. You can download the Supporting Undocumented Students zoom background here.

Thank you for supporting undocumented students at the LACCD!
