2. Section J, "Bid Prices to be Accurate and Complete," on page 10 of the IFB, has been revised to include the following additional information:

All prices submitted on the bid which the bidder submits shall not include sales tax; further, it is understood that prices bid for the schedules of classes, guides to classes and course catalogs listed on pages 18 and 19 of the IFB are specific to the number of pages stated for each publication, and adjustments in prices may be made, once the contract has been entered into, for adjustments in the quantity of artwork and in the number of pages for each publication, upon the mutual consent of the parties.

3. A third Bid Page has been added to the IFB, titled, "Notice of Intent to Respond to IFB No. 10-03," and is on the second page following. Please complete the information requested, and return that page by email to paltzac@email.laccd.edu or by fax to (213) 891-2490, as soon as possible, but failure to do so will not invalidate your bid. Its purpose is simply to ensure that the bidder will be included in any communication regarding the IFB that may be issued.
