- Board of Trustees Elections Alignment with the City of Los Angeles Elections

Vice President Eng reintroduced Dr. Guerra and discussed Dr. Guerra's professional background.

Dr. Guerra distributed a document entitled "Turnout in LACCD Elections" and discussed the document with respect to the turnout trends in the City of Los Angeles Mayoral elections from 1961 to 2013. He indicated that the Los Angeles City Council formed a commission that he was asked to chair to look at ways to improve voter turnout.

Dr. Guerra indicated that the first recommendation of this commission had been to move the elections from March and May in odd years to June and November in even years. He indicated that moving the elections to even years would decrease the cost for the City of Los Angeles. He indicated that if the first recommendation is not accepted by the City Council, a second recommendation would be to keep the elections in the odd year but move them to November.
