

Dolores Huerta Labor Institute

SPRING 2014

In the fall of 2013, DHLI helped coordinate 41 events. Through these events and labor courses, DHLI reached 2216. Some of the most remarkable work of our faculty includes a dramatic increase in the number of Collective Bargaining Educational Project workshops, and speaker series revolving around the Our Walmart campaign and Property Tax Loopholes educational speakers. In addition, DHLI worked with the Harry Bridges Project to bring the play "The Life of Thomas Paine" to LAVC.

To Begin the World Over Again:

The Life of Thomas Paine

In collaboration with the Harry Bridges' Project, and Prof. Zack Knorr, DHLI brought the one-man play by Ian Ruskin to celebrate the working class ideas of Thomas Paine such as fair taxation, social security, unemployment benefits, and free public education to LAVC.

Voices & Images

Voices & Images:

Through our Voices & Images initiative, students across LACCD learned about the struggle Walmart workers are facing in their Our Walmart campaign to improve wages and working conditions. Students also learned about the way in which Property Tax loopholes have hurt the funding of public education and other public services vital to working people in California.

Labor Educator Linda Tubach from The Collective Bargaining Educational Project brings role-playing workshops of contract negotiations, NLRB union recognition votes, and more into our classrooms. This semester 15 workshops were held in LACCD.
