What is a Labor Union?

Because employers have the ability to hire and fire, an unequal power relationship exists in the workplace. It can be argued that since work plays such a central role in people’s lives,

Democratic
• Leadership such as the President is elected by the members either by direct vote or elected delegates
• In most unions, members vote directly on their union contract and bargaining committee
• Similar to US government, corruption in leadership can occur when members do not participate in the democratic structures of their union
• A union is reflective of and only as strong as its membership

Organization of Working People
• Based on the idea that workers have more power working together as a group
• The union is the working people themselves, the “rank-and-file,” not a separate service company
• Stewards: rank-and-file members elected by their co-workers of the same union

Voice in the Workplace
• Collective bargaining = legal right of workers to negotiate as a group with management on conditions of work environment
• Contract or Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA) = written agreement of workplace conditions between employer and union
• Weingarten Rights = right to have a union representative with you during investigatory meetings that may lead to discipline [NLRB v. J. Weingarten, Inc., 420 U.S. 251 (1975)]

Voice in the Political Arena
• Affect public policies that impact working people and support candidates who commit to worker agenda
• Mobilizing People Power: Precinct Walking, Phonebanking, Lobbying, Letters, Worker Delegations to Elected’s offices, etc.
• Mobilizing Money Power: Monetary contributions for campaigns
TWO MODELS OF UNION REPRESENTATION

Union Representation deals with issues pertinent to the bargaining unit (workers represented by the union):

- Enforcing union contract
- Working on legislation that impacts conditions of work
- Filing charges with governmental bodies (NLRB or PERB)

Unions use either the servicing or organizing approach or a combination of both.

SERVICING MODEL

Paid staff person from union, aka Union Representative or Business Agent, acts on behalf of the worker and resolves it for him or her.

Utilizes primarily legal procedures, such as the grievance process outlined in the union contract including arbitration, to handle problems at worksite.

Sees union contract as a "ceiling." "If it is not in the contract, there is nothing we can do."
ORGANIZING MODEL

Rank-and-file members deal with their own issues at the worksite as a group.

Utilizes some legal procedures but also more militant tactics that involve larger number of workers such as “marches on the boss,” petition drives, pickets, etc.

Sees union contract as a “floor.” “Nothing can be done through the contract, but how many of your co-workers are willing to do something about the issue?”
In 2003, SEIU 1000, the Union of California State Workers, began the process of moving from a purely servicing model to an organizing model. Their decision to change terminology in their organization reflected their ideological shift and offers an illustrative example of the differences between the two different approaches in unionism.

Note: In 2006, SEIU 1000 began setting up a grievance center that specializes in servicing to address issues that cannot be addressed by an organizing approach and have increased the organizing responsibilities of the union staff representatives.
UNION TERMINOLOGY

Agency Shop: A workplace in which all employees who reap the benefits of the union contract and representation (e.g. higher wages and improved job security) must pay union dues regardless of his or her membership status. Workers who pay dues but do not join the union cannot participate in the democratic processes of the union (e.g. voting on union contract or union leadership).

Arbitration: A legal process whereby a neutral third party makes a binding judgment on a contract dispute (alleged contract violation) between a union and the employer. A judgment made by an arbitrator in a non-binding arbitration is not enforceable.

Bargaining Table: Contract negotiations.

Bargaining Team: Also known as the Negotiating Team or Bargaining Unit Negotiating Committee. Usually composed of elected rank-and-file members, elected union officials and some union staff, this group represents the union in contract negotiations with management.

Bargaining Unit: Workers designated to be represented by a single labor union.

Blitz: During a union organizing campaign, organizers conduct house visits in an intensive short time period.

Building Trades: Unions representing workers in the building trades. International Brotherhood of Boilermakers, Iron Ship Builders, Blacksmiths, Forgers, and Helpers (Boilermakers); International Union of Bricklayers and Allied Crafts Workers (BAC); International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (IBEW); International Union of Elevator Constructors (IUEC); International Association of Heat and Frost Insulators and Asbestos Workers (Insulators and Allied Workers); International Association of Bridge, Structural, Ornamental, and Reinforcing Iron Workers (Ironworkers); Laborers’ International Union of North America (LIUNA); International Union of Painters and Allied Trades (IUPAT); Operative Plasterers’ and Cement Masons’ International Association (OPCMIA); United Union of Roofers, Waterproofers and Allied Workers (Roofers); Sheet Metal Workers International Association (SMWIA); International Brotherhood of Teamsters (IBT); United Association of the Journeymen and Apprentices of the Plumbing and Pipe Fitting Industry (UA).

Business Agent: Depending on the union, this person is also called a Union Representative, Labor Relations Representative or Internal Organizer. This is a full-time paid staff person who works for the union and does union representation work.

Card-Check: A non-governmental regulated process, whereby workers can form a union through a majority of employees in a bargaining unit signing a card. Card-Check generally accompanies an agreement that the employer would refrain from any form of intimidation towards the employees during the process.

Central Labor Council (CLC): A local regional body of the AFL-CIO made up of unions from all industries in the area that work together on issues of common interest. The Los Angeles County Federation of Labor is a Central Labor Council.

Closed Shop: Also known as Union Shop. A workplace in which all employees must be members of the union in order to work.
CBA: Collective Bargaining Agreement. Formal name for contract.

Collective Bargaining: Legal right of workers to negotiate as a group with management on conditions of work environment.

Company Union: Employee organization created and dominated by the employer. Illegal under NLRA.

Contract: A legally binding written agreement between the union and the employer regarding conditions of the work environment such as wages and benefits, rights of workers and management and the procedure to deal with issues arising during the life of the contract.

COPE: Committee on Political Education. The body within a union or central labor council that decides on political campaigns, endorsements and legislative efforts and also managing the funding of these efforts.

County Fed: Los Angeles County Federation of Labor. The CLC for the Los Angeles region.

Deauthorization: Legal process by which union members remove Agency Shop or Union Shop from their workplace.

Decert: Decertification. Legal process by which union members gets rid of their labor union as their legal representative.
Duty of Fair Representation (DFR): Obligation of union to represent all workers in the bargaining unit fairly, equally and in good faith.

Fee-Payers: Workers in a bargaining unit who receive the benefits of the union contract and pay a fee to the union but refuse to be members and participate in the democratic processes of the union such as voting on the contract and electing leadership of the union.

FMCS: Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service. An independent government agency that handles mediation of labor disputes.

“Green Collar” work: Employment involving environment-friendly services or goods.

Grievance: Violation of the union contract. It is not a complaint, which are issues not covered under the union contract.

House Visit: Also known as House Call. It is when a union organizer visits a worker at home to talk about an issue or to form a union. House Visits are one of the most effective methods in communicating with workers since they are away from the workplace and require one-on-one face-to-face conversations.

International: The international and central body of a union.

Issue: More specific than a problem and tends to lend itself to a more defined solution. For example, racial discrimination is a problem. A pattern of white employees, regardless of experience and skill level, receiving promotions over more senior, experienced and skilled workers of color in the same job classification—an issue.

Informal Economy: Also known as Underground Economy or “off the books” or “under the table.” These are jobs that operate without government monitoring or taxation and usually subject workers to substandard working conditions.

Labor Peace: A situation when union commits to not strike, or a lull in collective action.

Local: The local branch of the International. This organization deals directly with workers in a bargaining unit.

Lockout: When the employer forbids workers from going to work.

MOB: “March on the Boss.” Workers engage in an unannounced group delegation to the supervisor’s office to discuss an issue in the workplace.

Neutrality Agreement: Employer agrees to remain neutral while workers are making a decision to form a union or not. Legally, employers can discourage workers from forming a union, short of discipline or firing for union activities. Because employers have the power to fire and discipline, their public opposition to the union may be interpreted as a form of intimidation.

No-strike and No-lockout Clause: A section in the contract that forbids any strike action by the bargaining unit and lockout by the employer for the duration of the CBA.
One-on-One: In organizing, it is an individual meeting between the organizer and the worker to be organized.

Open Shop: Workplace in which members of the bargaining unit receive the benefits of the union contract but workers are not mandated to join the union or pay union dues.

PLA: Project Labor Agreement. Contractors bidding on jobs must offer a prevailing wage to their workers, regardless of union membership status. This ensures a level playing field between union contractors and non-union contractors by ensuring union workers wages are not undercut.

Rank and File: Members of a union who do not hold elected office or appointed positions.

Rap: In organizing, it is the message delivered in a one-on-one with a worker with the purpose of educating, motivating and agitating.

Ratification: Union members in the bargaining unit vote on a newly negotiated contract.

“Sí Se Puede:” Spanish for “Yes, We Can!” Coined by Dolores Huerta, co-founder with Cesar Chavez of the United Farm Workers, it signified that any obstacle can be overcome.

Scab: Derisive term for a worker who violates a union strike by acting as a replacement for workers who are withholding their labor for better working conditions. Most union activists view these replacement workers as the lowest form of life.

State Fed: California Labor Federation AFL-CIO. The state body of the AFL-CIO.
Steward: Also known as Delegate or Union Representative. Rank-and-file members elected by their co-workers of the same union membership or appointed by elected union leadership to represent a specific shop or department in dealing with management.

Strike Sanction: Central Labor Council approves the strike of a union. Consequently, members of the CLC honor the picket line.

TA: Tentative Agreement. Individual proposals that are mutually agreed upon by both parties during negotiation pending ratification by union members in the affected bargaining unit. It also refers to the complete agreement reached between both parties during bargaining before it goes through ratification.

ULPs: Unfair Labor Practices. Any practice by employer or union in violation of the governmental acts covering collective bargaining rights.

Private Sector:

- National Labor Relations Act
  http://www.nlrb.gov/about_us/overview/national_labor_relations_act.aspx
- Agricultural Labor Relations Act (California farmworkers)
  http://are.berkeley.edu/APMP/alra/alrahandbook.pdf
- California Public Sector (In most states, most public employees do not have the legal right to collective bargaining):
  - Ralph C. Dills Act (state workers)
    - state government employees
Myers-Milias-Brown Act

- municipal, county, local special district employees

Educational Employment Relations Act

- school district employees in K-12 and community colleges

Higher Education Employer- Employee Relations Act

- University of California, California State University and Hastings College of Law

Los Angeles County Metropolitan Authority Transit Employer-Employee Relations Act

Trial Court Employment Protection and Governance Act

Trial Court Interpreter Employment and Labor Act

Union Bug: Tiny logo indicating that the item was printed by a union printer.

Union Busting: Employer practices that discourage workers from forming or maintaining a union.

Wildcat Strike: Strikes not officially sanctioned by union officials. These actions are not legally protected in the United States and may result in termination.

Working Families: Also known as working people, working class or workers.

TWO MAJOR UNION FEDERATIONS

American Federation of Labor – Congress of Industrial Organizations (AFL-CIO)

56 International Unions
Over 11 million workers

- President: Richard Trumka
- Secretary-Treasurer: Liz Shuler
- Executive Vice-President: Arlene Holt Baker
- 51 Vice-Presidents

Formed in 1955 when the American Federation of Labor (AFL) and the Congress of Industrial Organizations (CIO) merged together. The Congress of Industrial Organization, originally the Committee of Industrial Organizations founded in 1935 within the AFL, formed as a rival federation in 1938 when they failed to move the predominantly skilled crafts worker AFL to organize workers along mass industrial lines, which was largely immigrant and workers of color.

Change to Win Federation (CTW)

5 International Unions
Over 5 million workers

- Chair: Anna Burger
- Treasurer: Geralyn Lutty
- Leadership Council of 5 International Unions

Due to the continued decline of union membership, five international unions came together in 2003 as the New Unity Partnership to push the AFL-CIO to be more aggressive in their efforts to organize the unorganized through a more coordinated industry-based model. In 2005, 7 major international unions disaffiliated from the AFL-CIO to form Change to Win with a primary focus to organize the unorganized (minimum of 75% of resources).

International Unions are generally members of either the AFL-CIO or CTW. Local unions generally are part of the state federation of labor, the central labor council in their region and their international union. Local allied organizations are made-up of union members and are affiliated with the central labor council. Community partners are community allies who usually work in coalition with Labor.
