Successful PBS Video Premiere

About 250 people attended the Southern California Premiere on January 15 of the PBS-produced videos about Los Angeles Southwest College and Los Angeles Harbor College as part of the “Inside California Education” series about the positive impacts of California’s community colleges on higher education, workforce development, careers and upward mobility. The event was held at Southwest College.

The segment on Harbor looked at the college’s outstanding Nursing Program and its 100 percent testing rate for students taking their licensing board exams. For Southwest, the video focused on the college’s successful HireLAX construction jobs training and apprenticeship program where students receive in-demand construction skills education that often leads to well-paying jobs with companies working on the LAX expansion projects. Many of the students and faculty from both programs gathered at Southwest College to watch the premiere, join in a panel discussion and gather for some fun reunion photos.

If you have not watched the videos yet, catch them online:

Voting Centers

All nine colleges will be hosting the new, multi-day Voting Centers in conjunction with the Los Angeles County Registrar of Voters for the March 3, 2020 Super Tuesday Primary Election. Los Angeles City College and Los Angeles Mission College will host the expanded 11-day Voting Centers, open February 22 to March 3, 2020. The District's other seven colleges will host four-day Voting Centers, February 29 to March 3. Hours of operation at all sites will be 7 a.m. to 6 p.m., each day, except for extended hours on Super Tuesday March 3 when polls are open 6 a.m. to 9 p.m. The Voting Centers will be open to all registered voters, including students and the public.

2020 Census Kiosks

All nine colleges also will be hosting "Census Kiosks" in conjunction with the state's "Complete Count" efforts for the 2020 Census by the U.S. Census Bureau. Every 10 years, the federal government is required to do a census count of all people living in the United States.

Census Kiosks are planned for mid-March through April 30 to help students and the public complete their confidential census questionnaires. Official Census Day is April 1. The District is also helping the U.S. Census with its recruitment of full- and part-time workers needed to complete the 2020 Census by letting students know of the Census job opportunities.

On January 23, Chancellor Rodriguez met with the federal U.S. Census Bureau Director Steven Dillingham to reaffirm the District's commitment to the 2020 Census and to present to the national director the recent Board of Trustees resolution recognizing the importance of the 2020 Census.

Deans' Academy 2020 Launched

On January 30, more than 80 deans attended the first monthly session of the Deans' Academy 2020. Vice Chancellor Ryan Cornner led the event, with additional presentations from Human Resources led by Mercedes Gutierrez and Joseph Cartwright, and a fabulous final presentation on enrollment management led by L.A. Valley College Dean Matt Jordan. Future sessions are planned for the last day of each month through at least the month of June.

Black College Expo

LACCD partnered with the Los Angeles Urban League to have an information booth about all nine colleges and the L.A. College Promise program at the 21st annual Black College Expo on February 1 at the L.A. Convention Center.

Annual Legislative Trip to Sacramento

The LACCD Delegation met with 47 legislative and executive offices to advocate in support of LACCD students and the robust 2020 legislative agenda.

Four LACCD students went to Sacramento as part of the delegation, including students Maricela Garcia-Pena (L.A. Valley), Max Jordan (West L.A.), Nia Smith (L.A. Trade-Tech) and Briana Garnica (L.A. Mission).

Later this month, Board Trustees and executive staff will be visiting Washington, D.C., regarding federal legislative issues and priorities during the ACCT national summit February 9–12, 2020 for the 2020 Community College National Legislative Summit.

BuildLACCD Update

In 2019, BuildLACCD closed out a record 150 projects. This undertaking included a number of legacy projects dating back to 2006. Each project required review, organization and uploading of dozens of boxes worth of files, documents and records to the bond program's central database.

Later this month, a groundbreaking will occur February 25 at Los Angeles Trade-Technical College for the single largest bond-supported construction project in the District: the $108 million, four-story, 178,000-square-foot Construction Technology Building. When completed, it will house the most extensive and largest career education pathway at LATTC, the Construction, Maintenance, and Utilities (CMU) programs. The new facility will increase learning space capacity and will permit integration of other existing programs in the pathway such as architectural drafting, programmable logistics, power line mechanic and solar installation that are currently in other buildings on campus. This facility will provide state-of-the-art, efficient and compliant physical resources to replace current facilities in the 47-year-old Sequoia Hall.

II. District Updates for Basic Student Needs

Food for All

The Student Services Division at LASC held its "Food For All: Providing Food Security At LASC" event Wednesday, January 29. Hundreds of students who attended received free hot meals and bags of groceries while also learning about available student services. More than 300 bags of groceries were distributed to students as part of the college's ongoing commitment and work to address students' food needs.

Student Call Center

The LACCD Student Call Center is open through February 28 to help students complete their enrollments by helping to set password or set up new ones. Hundreds of calls have come in since the Call Center opened in January to help with their Spring 2020 enrollment.

III. Update on the LACCD Enrollment

A. Winter Enrollment

As of Day 24 of the Winter semester [comparing Winter 2020 (1/30/20) to Winter 2019 (1/26/19)] for the District:

- Credit Headcount is 14% higher
- Duplicated Enrollment is 15% higher
- Section Count is 6% higher
- Enrollment per Section is 8% higher

B. Spring Enrollment

As of Day -7 of the Spring semester [comparing Spring 2020 (2/3/20) to Spring 2019 (1/28/19)] for the District:

- Credit Headcount is 8% higher
- Duplicated Enrollment is 7% higher
- Section Count percentage is unchanged
- Enrollment per Section is 7% higher

C. 2019-20 Annual FTES Projection

Based on the most recent class schedules and enrollment and attendance accounting data, the District is projecting an increase of 0.3% to 0.7% (300 to 700 FTES) over 2018-19 FTES (98,139). Enrollment projections will be discussed and confirmed with the colleges at the upcoming 2nd Quarter Budget and FTES Meetings.

D. Chancellor's Leadership Retreat: Enrollment Management

College enrollment targets for 2020-21 were presented and discussed at the Chancellor's Leadership Retreat held on Jan. 9-10, 2020 at UCLA. On the basis of data and analysis, targets were developed for each college and individual SCFF component (Credit FTES, K-12 FTES, Noncredit Regular FTES, and Noncredit Enhanced FTES). The targets were presented and the colleges engaged in an interactive working session, examining recent enrollment data and discussing the capacity, resources and strategies needed to attain the 2020-21 targets. Based on feedback from the colleges and additional review by the Chancellor, targets will be available in late-Feb. 2020.

IV. Reports from the College Presidents (based on the District Strategic Plan 2018-2023)

Goal 1: Access to Educational Opportunities

Los Angeles Harbor College—LAHC is opening a new Basic Needs Center for Spring Semester 2020. The center will house representatives Interfaith Housing, CalFresh, WIC, and others who support students with housing and food insecurities. It will also be the hub for the campus food pantry.

Los Angeles Mission College—The Youth Law Center has announced that LAMC President Monte E. Perez, Ph.D., will be one of four honorees at the 20th Annual Unsung Heroes Awards on February 7, 2020 in San Francisco. The award recognizes President Perez for his outstanding partnership with Los Angeles County Probation, which provides incarcerated youth with access to college credit classes, admissions, counseling and wrap-around services through the College Culture Re-Entry Hub.

Los Angeles Southwest College—Starting February 19, LASC's Career Pathways and Job Center will offer "Workshop Wednesday" with a different workshop each week supporting career readiness. LASC also now offers access to Custodial Technical Preparation certificated training that will prepare students to meet the application requirements, job seeking and retention skills necessary for entry-level custodial positions in the public and private sector.

Los Angeles Valley College—Continuing a multi-year growth trend, dual enrollment course offerings and FTES generation at Los Angeles Valley College is increasing, from 40 classes in Spring 2019 to 61 classes in Spring 2020. At the same time, Outreach and Recruitment is working on connecting directly with all seniors at all primary feeder high schools during Valley Days, Promise Days in March/April, and Signing Days in April/May.

West Los Angeles College—On January 16, students from the Registered Dental Hygienist in Alternative Practice (RDHAP) program and the Dental Hygiene director flew to Sacramento as part of a Dental Hygienist Association effort to talk to elected leaders on support for Senate Bill 653. If passed, the bill will allow hygienists to expand their duties to include performing non-invasive procedures without the supervision of a dentist. The bill will also increase the work settings where RDHAPs can practice at hospitals, medical offices and other healthcare settings. WLAC is the only California college that offers an RDHAP program. This program prepares Registered Dental Hygienists to operate their own dental hygiene practice in under-served areas or in nursing facilities.

WLAC students with State Senator Steven Bradford (District 35)

East Los Angeles College—Los Angeles County Supervisor Kathryn Barger recognized the Los Angeles County Probation Department, United Parcel Service (UPS) and ELAC for their partnership in creating a logistics education and career program accessible by youth in Probation facilities.

East Los Angeles College—ELAC hosted a press conference for California Assemblymember Miguel Santiago to announce the introduction of his AB 1862, sponsored by LACCD. If approved, AB 1862 would provide two years of tuition-free education at any California State University (CSU) campus for students who receive an associate degree for transfer (ADT) from a California Community College by participating in the California College Promise program, including the L.A. College Promise program at the District's nine colleges.

Goal 2: Premier Learning Environments

Los Angeles Southwest College—LASC’s Career for a Cause program was profiled in a recent article by the Los Angeles Times. The program trains students for jobs in the homeless services sector.

Los Angeles City College—LACC President Dr. Mary Gallagher met with the UCLA-CESMII (Clean Energy Smart Manufacturing Innovation Institute) to discuss future plans to house the UCLA-CESMII on the LACC Campus. Dr. Mary Gallagher also recently met with the City of Los Angeles’ Department on Disability to discuss a development plan for community colleges to offer curriculum on becoming Certified Access Specialists.

Los Angeles City College—LACC recently opened a new Writing Center to assist students with their writing skills.

Los Angeles Mission College—LAMC students from the Biotechnology program presented their poster at the Society for the Advancement of Biology Education Research (SABER) West 2020 Conference on January 19, 2020. Patricia Velazquez, Daniel Solorzano, and Tanida Koomchana presented their poster on Integrating Project-Based Learning in a Science Lab, and Silver Nanoparticles: The Magic of Super Silver. Their trip was supported by LAMC’s National Science Foundation ATE Award. Dr. Chander Arora and Dr. Parvaneh Mohammadian were the faculty members who submitted the poster abstract with the students.

Goal 3: Student Success and Equity

West Los Angeles College—WLAC’s College & Career Prep Division has successfully partnered with 100 Black Men of L.A. to offer its 2020 Pathways to Success Entrepreneurial Program as noncredit program for the upcoming Spring semester. So far, 35 students are enrolled. Upon completion, these students will earn a State Chancellor-recognized

Certificate of Completion listed on their college transcript as “Choosing Business Careers Certificate of Completion.”

West Los Angeles College—The WLAC Wildcats Baseball Team’s home opener had something unique—its first-ever female player! Luisa Gauci is one of only a few women playing collegiate baseball. The Australian originally signed on to play for Menlo Park but had a very positive experience at a training camp held at West over the summer. By the end of camp, she asked to join the West Los Angeles College team and now plays as a middle fielder (short stop or second base). A profile on Luisa is expected to air on KPCC in late January or early February. Her story has also appeared in Culver City papers and @GirlsPlayBaseball on Facebook.

<http://laccd.edu/Documents/NewsDocuments/2019-WLACFemaleBaseballPlayer.pdf>

East Los Angeles College—ELAC men’s basketball team has been the focus of an upcoming Netflix documentary series titled “Last Chance U.” The first four seasons of the show followed a community college football team throughout their season and this is the first time the series follows a basketball team. Their last day of filming was a game against Long Beach City College on January 17.

Los Angeles Harbor College—LAHC is one of 65 host campuses for the Community College Immigration Legal Services Pilot Project through the California Department of Social Services, the California Community Colleges Chancellor’s Office and the Foundation for California Community Colleges. Services will begin in Spring 2020.

Goal 4: Organizational Effectiveness

Los Angeles City College—In January, LACC held a Classified Retreat to discuss equity, visibility and unity. More than 130 classified staff attended.

West Los Angeles College—WLAC administrative leaders attended a two-day retreat in January to refine the college’s goals, objectives and strategies to increase enrollment and student success.

West Los Angeles College—WLAC faculty members of the College and Career Preparation Division and their dean will be presenting at the Association of Community and Continuing Education conference in Sacramento in January.

Los Angeles Valley College—LAVC Professional Development held a professional development session for classified staff on micro-aggressions on January 17.

East Los Angeles College—ELAC Employee Recognition Committee started an Employee Recognition Program. The first awards will be given at the end of Spring 2020 semester.

Goal 5: Fiscal Integrity

Los Angeles Valley College—As part of enrollment management for the Spring semester, LAVC is monitoring enrollments on a daily basis, cancelling low enrolled offerings, and adding high-demand classes. Additional 2nd 8-week classes will be added to drive Spring enrollments higher.
