Community, Campus, and Confidential Support Services

Community Support

Law Enforcement

- Call 911 if you believe you are in imminent danger.
- Call your local police department if you would like to report a crime, file a restraining order, etc.

Medical Care

If you require medical treatment and/or STD testing, go to a hospital, the LAPC Student Health Center, or a community resource, such as the Santa Monica UCLA Rape Treatment Center.

If you would like related medical evidence collected (i.e. a rape kit):

- Contact the Santa Monica UCLA Rape Treatment Center at (310) 319-4000, or
- Call (800) 656-4673 to find places near you that perform sexual assault forensic exams

Confidential Support

Counseling

Free confidential counseling is available to:

- students through LAPC Student Health Center
- employees through the Employee Assistance Program
- everyone through community resources, such as Strengths United and Peace Over Violence

Please note the other resources listed are not confidential.

Campus Support (Available to LAPC community members, regardless of their documentation status)

LAPC Sheriff's Office

Call the Campus Sheriff at (818) 719-6450 if something happens on campus (immediately), if you have safety concerns, and/or to notify them about an ongoing situation or a restraining order you have filed.
