LGBTQ+ Pride Month

Pride Month is celebrated every June to honor the LGBTQ+ community and commemorate the Stonewall Uprising of June 1969 in New York City.

The protests, sparked by a police raid at the Stonewall Inn, became a turning point in the fight for LGBTQ+ rights in the United States.

The first Pride marches took place in 1970, marking the anniversary of Stonewall. Since then, Pride has grown into a global movement, celebrating visibility, equality, and love—while continuing to advocate for justice and inclusion.

Juneteenth Freedom Day

Pull Up Mental Health Concert

Pull Up Mental Health Concert

Annual event supporting 20,000 at-risk youth with resources and inspiration.
Impact: 92% increase in mental health awareness, 65% reduction in recidivism rates among attendees.
